

2025 EUROPEAN PLOUGHING CHAMPIONSHIPS

We are delighted to host the 2025 European Reversible Ploughing Championships and the European Vintage Ploughing Championships in England in the Spring of 2025.

It will be run as one event and will be held on Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd March 2025 at Upper Morton, near Retford, Nottinghamshire by kind permission of Joseph Camm Farms Limited. The soil is sandy and both days will be stubble.

A package will be prepared to include hotel accommodation in the area, meals and presentation. The check-in day will be Thursday 27th February and practice day for all will be Friday 28th February.

There will be a Welcome Dinner for everyone on the Thursday evening and all trophies and results for both the Reversible and Vintage Championships will be announced and presented at a Presentation Dinner on the evening of Sunday 2nd March. Departure will be on the Monday morning.

Please note: Visitors are welcome but there will be no organised tours.

We intend to make the Championships interesting to visitors and will also have demonstrations of horse ploughing and steam ploughing engines, along with displays of static vintage tractors and hopefully trade stands.
